DAILY GAZETTE.

THE LATE ELECTIONS.—The New York Tribune has the following comment on the late elections:
"That there has been no real gain to the side that includes all the most sympathizers with the rebellion, we know; the apparent gain has been caused by the enormous disproportion of republicans and Union war democrats who have volunteered and gone to the war. The Pennsylvania army vote last year showed this; no did the Illinois army vote last spring; but the disproportion of republicans who have volunteered under the late heavy calls is immensely larger than before. We shall give thirty thousand less majority to Gen. Wadsworth in this state than we would if no man had gone from it to the war since July. But we must make up by energy and industry a part of this heavy loss."
There is nothing new in this effect of the war. In the war of 1812, several states were carried repeatedly by the federalists, because of the preponderance of republicans who had volunteered for the war. The loss was, however, but momentary, and the states came back to their old faith with a stronger emphasis on the return of their gallant sons. So will it be in this case.
Nobody could expect that the disciples of Vandenberg, Cox, Ainsworth, Voorhees, &c., would volunteer in equal numbers with the republican constituents of Bingham, Gurley, Grow, Stevens, Colfax, &c. Mr. Colfax alone loses over three thousand majority by the volunteering from his district; and so it is with others of like faith. But let our generals allow their soldiers a fair chance to crush out the rebels in arms against the government, and it will be light work thereafter to deal with their virtual allies in the free states."

WATCHED DEATH OF A ONCE PROMINENT INDIVIDUAL.—Baron John DeSteuernberger, one of the largest beef contractors, and one of the wealthiest men in the United States, died in this city yesterday. His death had been stated of extreme misery. His death had been given by charity, and those that surrounded it, persons in the lowest walks of life. John DeSteuernberger was born in the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, where he,
in after years, erected a palatial residence.
The title of baron was given to him on account of his princely speculations, which were generally ones where millions of dollars were involved. He was the greatest cattle dealer in Virginia, and probably in the United States.

With Nicholas Biddle, president of the United States Bank, as a partner, the two,
in one gigantic cotton speculation, cleared $3,000,000, many years ago. Afterwards he became again a beef contractor, and made an attempt to monopolize all the markets in the country. This caused other dealers everywhere to band together against him, and he failed, losing almost everything.

In 1847 the Baron went to California with Commodore Thomas Ap Catesby Jones, and getting into the cattle business there, again did an immense business, losing it also by some means. When the war broke out he was cast, and came west at the same time with Fremont, being engaged by beef contractors to assist them at $2,000 per month. Soon becoming too dissipated for business, the connection was severed, and he did little or nothing, although many took an interest in him, and tried to assist him.
Going to Helena he contracted a disease which could not be cured, and yesterday died from it and disipation combined. His wife, a daughter of Col. Burns, of Virginia, is still living in that state, and holds considerable property in her own name. Baron Stein-berger has certainly been one of the notables of the age, and was well known among business men east and west.—St. Louis Republican, 16th.

THE WAY THE SOLDIERS VOTE.—The soldiers' vote of Iowa comes in slow, but it comes very sure. Thus far it looks up republican 9,199, democrats 1,851. Which horn of the dilemma that this state of facts suggests will the democracy lay hold of?
Did the republicans enlist originally in this proportion, or did the democrats get converted soon after enlisting?

Madame Anna Bishop, the celebrated singer, was burned in St. Paul on Wednesday of last week by her clothes taking fire, from the effects of which she died on the Friday following.

In less than six hours after Dick Hawes was installed as provisional (rebel) governor of Kentucky, in the capitol building at Frankfort, the whole party—brogue governor and suite, commanding general, provost marshal, and all the rag-tag and bob-tail followers of Braxton Bragg—skedaddled towards Lexington.

Mr. Charles A. Dana, recently of the New York Tribune, is about to become editor and part proprietor of the Albany Evening Journal, taking the interest of Mr. Weed.

In some parts of the south cows' hair is in use for the manufacture of clothing, in the place of wool which has become exceedingly scarce. The hair is washed perfectly clean, and pulled or beat so as to have no bunches. After it is dried it is ready for use. Like wool for ordinary cloth, it is used only for "filling," and mixed only with about one-third cotton.

According to the official report laid before the rebel congress, the rebel debt on the first of August was $347,272,958, and the appropriations required up to the first of January next, are $209,550,487—making a total of $556,823,445. It is supposed that congress will under the necessity of providing for another war tax.

MACHINE
WESTERN OFFICE
SALESROOM

124 Lake Street, Chicago, W. C. MASON, AGT.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you wish it, with on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufacturers to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make and have all the advantages of a reversible foot motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done without the machine in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obtained by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail. Address: Office over the Post Office, Janesville, Wis. Or, W. C. MASON, General Western Agent, Chicago.

DAILY GAZETTE.

THE LATE ELECTIONS.—The New York Tribune has the following comment on the late elections:

"That there has been no real gain to the side that includes all the most sympathizers with the rebellion, we know; the apparent gain has been caused by the enormous disproportion of republicans and Union war democrats who have volunteered and gone to the war. The Pennsylvania army vote last year showed this; so did the Illinois army vote last spring; but the disproportion of republicans who have volunteered under the late heavy calls is immensely larger than before. We shall give thirty thousand less majority to Gen. Wade in this state than we would if no man had gone from it to the war since July. But we must make up by energy and industry a part of this heavy loss.

"There is nothing new in this effect of the war. In the year of 1812, several states were carried repeatedly by the federalists, because of the preponderance of republicans who had volunteered for the war. The loss was, however, but momentary, and the states came back to their old faith with a stronger emphasis on the return of their gallant sons. So will it be in this case. Nobody could expect that the disciples of Vallandigham, Cox, Auneau, Voorhees, &c., would volunteer in equal numbers with the republican constituents of Bingham, Gurley, Grow, Stevens, Colfax, &c. Mr. Colfax alone loses over three thousand majority by the volunteering from his district; and so it is with others of like faith. But let our generals allow their soldiers a fair chance to crush out the rebels in arms against the government, and it will be light work thereafter to deal with their virtual allies in the free states."

WATCHEDEATH OF A ONCE PROMINENT INDIVIDUAL.—Baron John Beal Steinger, once the largest beef contractor, and one of the wealthiest men in the United States, died in this city yesterday, under circumstances of extreme misery. His death bed was one given by charity, and those that surrounded it, persons in the lowest walks of life. John Beal Steinger was born in the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, where he, in after years, erected a palatial residence. The title of baron was given to him on account of his princely speculations, which were generally ones where millions of dollars would be involved. He was the greatest cattle dealer in Virginia, and probably in the United States.

With Nicholas Biddle, president of the United States Bank, as a partner, the two, in one grand cotton speculation, cleared $3,000,000 many years ago. Afterwards he became again a beef contractor, and made an attempt to monopolize all the markets in the country. This caused other dealers everywhere to band together against him, and he failed, losing almost everything.

In 1847 the Baron went to California with Commodore Thomas Agateby Jones, and getting into the cattle business there, again did an immense business, losing it also by some means. When the war broke out he was again and came west by boat time with Fremont, being engaged by beef contractors to assist them at $2,000 per month. Soon becoming too dissipated for business, the connection was severed, and he did little or nothing, although many took an interest in, and tried to assist him. Going to Helena he contracted a disease which could not be cured, and yesterday died from it and dissipation combined. His wife, a daughter of Col. Burns, of Virginia, is still living in that state, and holds considerable property in her own name. Baron Steinger has certainly been one of the notable figures of the age, and was well known among business men east and west.—St. Louis Republican, 16th.

THE WAY THE SOLDIERS VOTE.—The soldiers' vote of Iowa comes in slow, but it comes very sure. Thus Johnston Meeting—Change of Time.

The republican meeting called at Johnston this evening (Saturday, 25th), has been changed to Tuesday, October 28th.

A CARD.

To the Friends of the 12th Wisconsin Battery: Messrs. Editors:—Through the medium of your paper the members of the 12th Wisconsin Battery desire to express their sincere and heartfelt thanks for their very generous and gratuitous gift of the many delicious luxuries and comforts we are enjoying since the arrival of the box directed to Lieut. E. G. Harlow, of this battery. The arrival of the box was hailed with the utmost joy and gladness, not so much on account of what it contained, but for the sake of those kind-hearted ones who sympathize with us, and can understand and appreciate the smiles of gladness that overspread each face here, that is familiar to the good people of Janesville.

To the Ladies' Aid Society, in anticipation of what may happen to call into requisition the abundance of hospital stores they have sent us, our sincere wishes and earnest prayers shall never cease for their blessing. Knowing their purity of purpose and their fidelity to their bleeding country's cause, our greatest hope is that we, the recipients of their many favors, may not be found faltering in this hour of our country's trial, but animated by the example set by us as friends at home, we feel stronger in reflecting that the hearts of the ladies of Janesville are with us in the good cause.

We would also heartily thank Mr. O. J. Dearborn for his kindness in making his store the receiving depot for the articles received, and for having so handsomely and safely packed the same. To him and Rev. M. P. Kinney we tender a soldier's grateful thanks for a quantity of stationery, which came in time of need. The stationery we shall return from time to time, through the medium of the mail, some to the generous donors, which, with our thanks is all we care to send back.

We also would not forget Messrs. King and Nash for periodicals and other reading matter. All in all gives the sacrificing soldier renewed courage to endure our manifold hardships, and with braver hearts we will go forward to conquer our country's enemies, and with the same spirit as when we enlisted, lay down our lives if necessary for its salvation.

A NEW ARTICLE.—Ellis & Brother, opposite the American, have the agency for a new article of bread made in Milwaukee without yeast or fermentation. It is an excellent article, and worthy the attention of housekeepers.

NEW MEAT MARKET.—Tom Lynch has opened the market on Main street, in the old post office building, and stocked it with a variety of good meat. Tom says he means to avoid the errors of his predecessors, and wouldn't trust their friends, and will keep a book account by double entry—i. e. he will charge twice and collect as often as he can. We don't see any reason why Tom should not have a good business, especially as he keeps as good meat as those who expect pay for it.

AGAIN AFFLICTED.—Rear Admiral Foote has lost another child—the third within the last half year. His daughter Miria Eudocia Foote, aged seven years, died at New Haven on Monday the 20th inst.

FREE LUNCH.—A free lunch will be given next Monday morning at my saloon on Main street, opposite Harvey's, to which my friends and the public generally are respectfully invited to partake. Sausages and sour-kraut will be served.

A GREAT TRIUMPH

McKee & Bro.

the importance of which is not without the importance to the whole people of Wisconsin, as they must admit upon inspecting our enormous stock, and learning the prices. Five months ago, forcing the tremendous advance which has since taken place in the price of our goods.

DOMESTIC GOODS,

and believing in the old proverb that "Delays are Dangerous," we have taken the time to bring out our immense to bear on a depreciated market, and as we had lived and prospered among the people of Wisconsin, we resolved that they should have the benefit of our long experience and large Cash Capital. We therefore purchased in May and June last over $100,000 Worth of Domestic Goods, consisting of 360 bales and cases of Fine Medium and Heavy Bleached and Unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, all the popular styles for the season price.

CASH RESOURCES

100 cases Merino, Cashmere, American, Sprague and other celebrated brands of Fine Color Calicoes, printed in advance for the season.

60 cases Cotton Plaid, Unbleached and bleached, long black nap, and made on the best of machinery.

20 cases and bales of Shirting Stripes, the heaviest and most durable, such as Lancaster, York, West-Port, etc.

20 cases of Glingham, in Everyland and other heavy and best makes.

We shall sell a good Monitor Print for 10¢. A full yard wide for one shilling, and all our best and cheapest styles for 10¢.

We shall sell a good unbleached factory for one shilling, and a good bleached factory for one shilling.

Choice printed and plain Delaines, 20¢ a yard, shilling. If asked how we can afford to do so, we answer "cash!"

We have just received 20 cases of new and choice styles of Hamilton, Manchester and Pacific Delaines, which we shall sell at 10¢.

Also 25 cases of Middlesex, all wool, pressed, plain, in every shade, and which we offer at the old price.

Our Stock of Black Silks is full and complete, and was bought when prices were at the bottom—before the tremendous advance in exchange took place.

We have now on hand a magnificent stock of consisting of Double Twilled wool Melons, printed and plain; English Merinos, printed and plain; French and English Ropes and Velours, printed and plain; Tuscany Cloth, Orleans, and other styles.

GOODS,

Also 200 pieces all wool and Union Fabric Melons.

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

We have over 3,000 superior all wool heavy Blanket Shawls—bought cheap, and which we will sell cheap.

Our Cloak stock is replete with all the New and Desirable styles.

HATS, CAPS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERS, VESTINGS, &c., &c.

In conclusion we would advise the public not to be attracted by those who show false colors or get up "cheap" stock, but to come to our store and inspect our stock, which is larger than all other stocks in Janesville put together, and which will be sold at less than cost.
